CBRE Group, Inc. (NYSE:CBG), a Fortune 500 and S&P 500 company, is the world's largest commercial real estate services firm and global leader in real estate services. The Company has approximately 70,000 employees and serves real estate owners, investors and occupiers through more than 300 offices worldwide. CBRE offers strategic advice and execution for property sales and leasing; corporate services; property, facilities and project management; mortgage banking; appraisal and valuation; development services; investment management; and research and consulting.

CBRE Capital Markets, comprised of Debt & Structured Finance, Investment Sales and Real Estate Investment Banking works as a seamless, fully integrated global service offering to assure clients that all alternative strategies are evaluated and our clients have access to complete capital market solutions anywhere around the globe.

As a licensed Freddie Mac Seller-Servicer, approved Fannie Mae Delegated Underwriting and Servicing (DUS) lender, and HUD FHA approved direct lender, the CBRE Capital Markets lending platform provides a dedicated source of financing to our multi-housing and senior housing clients across the U.S. Additionally, CBRE possesses a unique mortgage banking/real estate investment banking platform which includes: Permanent Financing, Bridge Loans, Construction Financing, Joint Venture Equity, Loan Restructuring, Loan Sales Advisory, Loan Servicing, Mezzanine Debt, Structured Equity, Note Financing Purchase.

CBRE is the largest agency lender in the nation with over $20.7 billion of combined Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and FHA loan volume in 2018. CBRE has been the #1 Freddie Mac lender in the nation since 2009. In 2018, CBRE placed over $29.6 billion in multifamily loan volume and over $78.2 billion in multifamily loan volume from 2016-2018.

CBRE National Senior Housing, comprised of Debt & Structured Finance, Investment Sales, and Investment Banking, is the largest senior housing capital markets group in the nation. CBRE National Senior Housing maintains the leading Capital Markets position in both Investment Sales and Debt Originations, having completed over $2.2 billion of combined senior housing transactions in 2018 and $2+ billion in 2019 year-to-date. The Co-Heads have completed a combined $17.1 billion in senior housing Debt Originations and Investment Sales transactions throughout the course of their careers, and possess a combined 51-years of senior housing-specific industry experience.

CBRE National Senior Housing has been a Top 2 senior housing originator from 2010 through 2018. In 2015 through 2018, the team originated over $5 billion in senior housing debt across 230 assets nationwide. In 2016, CBRE was Fannie Mae's #1 senior housing originator in the country. CBRE was the #1 GSE lender in the nation in 2018 with $19.8 billion in Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac originations.

Position:

The Intern will report to the Co-Head of CBRE National Senior Housing responsible for senior housing debt originations nationally in the Houston office.

The responsibilities of the intern include: analysis of debt and equity investment opportunities, valuation and investment underwriting, market research, and assistance facilitating closings of Independent Living/Assisted Living/Skilled Nursing transactions.

All candidates should have a background in accounting/finance (BBA or MBA). The candidate should possess excellent computer skills, strong analytical and communication skills, and be proficient in Microsoft Office, and specifically in Excel and PowerPoint. Candidates should also possess general accounting knowledge with specific experience in preparing and analyzing financial statements and cash flow models.

The need is immediate basis and candidates will be interviewed